Return to Paradise (Leaving Paradise, #2) by Simone Elkeles

Unfortunately Return to Paradise wasn't any better than Leaving Paradise. I still didn't feel a connection towards the Maggie and Caleb and didn't like how they behaved towards each other in this book. But I really liked the ending. I found it very cute. I did enjoy this book but I don't love this series.

I'm a huge Simone Elkeles fan. HUGE! So, I was extremely excited for Return to Paradise, because let's face it, Leaving Paradise really left us hanging. I was so anxious to read what was going to happen with Caleb and Maggie! I knew it wouldn't be easy for them. No, Elkeles is the queen of drama! Nothing is ever easy for her characters.

It's not like in LEAVING PARADISE where they made progress by approaching the other. In RETURN TO PARADISE they are caught in a silly loop and unnecessary frictions, pushing the other away and letting him get close again. New about this part of their story is that they join four other teens on their trip. They are Matt, Erin, Trish and Lenny.
